

Anger Management:

Anger Management is NOT equivalent to BIP. The goal of anger management is to prevent, diffuse or re-direct anger. Therapeutic techniques are utilized to teach someone with uncontrollable indiscriminate anger how to reduce the triggers, degrees, and influence of an angered emotional state. Note: If the client has lost their temper indiscriminately, Anger Management may be beneficial. If the client's anger/violence is coercive and strategic to control another individual, BIP is the appropriate service.
